Andre Lafreniere's

Dedication

Summer's cool evening breeze swept over the land. The Angel of Death came like a gentle zephyr and led our devoted companion to Heaven.

It is with loving remembrance that we, the Class of 1960, dedicate this edition of The Marian to Andre Lafreniere, our loyal classmate. He was faithful to his parish, school, and family. A better friend could not be found. His memory lingers in our hearts, and in our minds we hear him say:

*"To Mary I pray, my friends of past days,
To keep you forever in good Christian ways;
That you may be always close to her Son,
And with Him in Heaven when life's race is won.*

*Be not of a sad and down-hearted nature
While proceeding along life's way;
Be cheerful and smile, knowing that We'll meet again some day."*

Thomas Thibault

Reverend John J. McCarthy

To our beloved pastor, Father McCarthy, we express sincere gratitude for our happy and worth-while high school days. His guiding hand led us; his cheery words inspired us; his loving kindness gladdened us. Our days spent in the new Saint Mary High School are memorable. We are fortunate. No class appreciates more than ours the benefits which we have received during the past four years. Many thanks, Father! Our prayers go with you!

SCIENTIST ANALYZES GREEN CHEESE

Noted American chemist, Dr. Thomas D. Thibault, has successfully analyzed the moon's surface. This advancement occurred shortly after Roger Paquette, first man on the moon, returned to the nation's space laboratories with a sizable sample. Dr. Thibault determined the substance to be Monodichloriphycarbodalanazium, a rare compound which freezes at 39°C. and melts at 37°C. It will certainly prove useful to the general public.

NAVY MUSICIANS TO PERFORM

The U. S. Navy Concert Band under the direction of Captain Gary Lambert will perform this evening on the grounds of the Admiral Ronald L. Gilbert estate. Featured in the program will be the Lieutenants Leon Pare, cornetist, and Ernest Serbian, drummer.

Accompanying the group are Lieutenant Henry Veilleux, general manager, Lieutenant Cecile Belanger, treasurer, and civilian secretary, Sandra Bonneau.

MILITARY FRIENDS MEET

Members of the 1960 graduating class of SMH who joined the service that same year recently held a reunion at the Earth Dwellers' Inn on U. S. Space Route 60. At the gathering were David Buck, Paul LaRoche, Larry Cunningham, Roland Mills, Alfred Theroux, and Richard Thibodeau. Guest speakers were Donald Bernard and Thomas Dion who gave humorous but interesting accounts of the disadvantages of being barbers in non-gravitational space.

NURSES SHIRK DUTIES

Irene Normandin, Louis Rivard, and Charlotte Smith, convalescents at the local hospital, couldn't procure an ounce of service for almost an hour yesterday afternoon. It seems that registered nurses Francine Thibodeau, Rosalie George, and office secretary, Annette Courtemanche, were engrossed in a television show. When the patients discovered the reason for such negligence they were pleased rather than peeved. The girls were watching their former classmate, Joanne Paradowski win the title of "American Nurse of the Year."

HOLLYWOOD RECEIVES NEW PHOTOGRAPHER

Armand Denis, Photographer for this newspaper, has accepted a position with the Cornish Triplet Studios in Hollywood as publicity photographer for the current movie production, "The Robert Bonner Story" co-starring Pat White and Terry Rousseau. The movie, which brilliantly reenacts the experiences of Mr. Bonner as foreign correspondent behind the Iron Curtain, is being narrated in part by Charles Fmond.

FINANCEERS INVEST IN NEW PROJECT

Maurice Lapointe, president of the Lapointe Manufacturing Co., announced today that self-made millionaires John Fennesv, Paul Williams, and Norman Marcotte have agreed to finance the company's latest project, a revolutionary new passenger vehicle designed by Nathan Bly, one of the country's top engineers. Paul Therriault is scheduled to test drive the vehicle.

CLASSES COMMENCE AT SMJH

Roger Russel, science teacher and principal at the new St. Mary Junior High, announced today that all is running smoothly. He is particularly grateful to the P.T.O., headed by the former Miss Jacqueline Barrett, for its generous donation of a painless knowledge injector. States Mr.

Russel, "The nerves of a faculty have never been so calm."

In the grammar school, first grade teacher Janet Goddette has won recognition in the "Kids Are Funny" column of a popular teachers' publication. Having asked the children to explain who adored the Christ Child on Christmas, wrote Miss Goddette, one bright-eyed little girl emphatically announced, "Three wise guys came to give pheasants."

The youngster is the daughter of the former Miss Yvette Fournier.

AMBASSADOR COMPLETES TOUR

Miss Theresa Anne Couture, famed marimba artist, concludes today an international good-will tour. During the past nine months she with her all-girl orchestra and choral group has been graciously accepted in many countries. Miss Sylvia Poirier, business secretary of the organization and soprano with the chorale, also returns home for a short rest.

Miss Couture's autobiography, With Mallets Toward All, is currently emptying the bookstands.

SECRETARIAL SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS SELECTED

The recently elected members of the faculty of the Paul Potvin Secretarial School include Jane Patch, President; Phyllis Bonneau, Registrar; Ghislaine Ferland, Dean; Sharon Clark, Director of Admissions; Theresa Lacasse, Treasurer; and Irene Thomas and Marie Goewey, Advisory Board.

A HUGE SUCCESS

The cast of the 1960 St. Mary Senior play experienced an unexpected situation last week when their repeat performance of PICK A DILLY so thrived an overflow audience that the production was held over for two days. Above seated from left are Janet Goddette, a domineering wife, Patricia White, Theresa Lacasse, and Ghislaine Ferland, three lovely Dilly sisters; Richard Limoges, a spoiled terror; Annette Courtemanche, an acidulous spinster; and Paul Williams, a prim pompous lawyer. Standing from left are Thomas Thibault, a hen-pecked husband; Theresa Couture, a high strung and possessive mother; Gary Lambert, a boyfriend; Joanne Paradowski, a dolorous housekeeper; Leon Pare, a Texan side kick; Terry Rousseau, a rambunctious Texan; Sandra Bonneau, a jittery maid with an Ozark twang; Ronald Gilbert, a mad mortician; and Irene Thomas, a horrendous hag.

Reminiscences

Dear Classmates,

At this time, it is our aim to recall to your memories the wonderful events of the past four years. It was a tremendous privilege and pleasure for all fifty-seven of us to enter as hale, hearty, heady, and handsome freshmen on September 5, 1956. No one ever mentioned the halos!!!

Green Carpet Day was ushered in with brilliant sun shining on our artistic (?) green hats, as we attempted, in vain, to sneak into the annex without being observed — the boys with their babies and the girls with their trucks. Henry sang "Cr-r-r-ie"; the Cornishes demonstrated their brotherly love; and Armand became Mr. America!

A swirling panorama of autumn leaves and trees was the scene of our Freshman Reception. Will we ever forget the time when Terry proved he was a bigger baby than Jacky?

Of course there were our all-important studies you know, as when we nearly upset all mathematics of the century by our final connection with  $2(15 - x) = 60 - x$ . And then, Latin — there wasn't anything we didn't know about the Latin book, except the Latin!

Overcrowded cars, pick-up trucks, and just about everything transported us sophomores-to-be to our last freshman function: a class picnic at Sunapee in June 1957. The sun decided to play peek-a-boo, but we didn't let a few raindrops spoil our fun!

September again and we were back once more at S.M.H. as slightly experienced sophomores. Now it was our turn to show that "we" could do it. New York, London, Paris. — "Around the World in Eighty Days" we portrayed it all in the gym as one of the best freshman receptions ever. That was when Johnny danced with the broom!

It is said that sophomore means wise fool! Well, we lived up to half of that anyway when Theresa and Joanne copped two out of three first prizes at the Science Fair. A considerably better organized class picnic to Spofford Lake terminated our last year at old S.M.H.

In the midst of a dedication ceremony, parades, and the festivities of St. Mary week, we entered, as juniors, into our beautiful new school. The newness and freshness of pastels made it difficult to settle down, but soon the year was in full swing. They say, "History repeats itself," but we were hoping it was not so.

It was one thing after another: Christmas card sale; money, money, money; our class rings. We thought they'd never arrive; and then the Prom. We waited anxiously for the final word of approval and when "Oriental Gardens" was selected as our theme, committees were appointed and work started. Evenings and vacations were filled with prom activities. The big night arrived! Somewhat tired, but very happy, the junior class witnessed a delightful evening and a prom that was a huge success — the best ever!

Vacation came, June, July, and August. It was then, August 1959, that we, the Class of 1960, suffered an unforgettable loss, the death of our dear classmate, Andre Lafreniere. May he rest in peace. This event ushered a more unified and serious-minded senior class into the halls of St. Mary High.

Soon we were entangled in the hustle and bustle of our last year. English had never seemed so hard!! The hydrogen "pop" certainly had its effect on the girl chemists!!

As for sports, '59 and '60 seemed to be "the" year. Our soccer team, in its second season, went all the way to the tourney. And the basketball team, 9 10 senior comprised, promised to do the same, but the last few games kept us out. We were good losers!

Everyone was determined to look his best for individual pictures and skepticism turned to excitement when they finally arrived on time for Christmas. It was a busy time with the Christmas Formal coming up. Garlands of evergreens, bells, and mistletoe set the atmosphere for the second Christmas Formal as we danced to the music of the "Hermits."

A yearbook, the project of the year, presented itself as a challenge. Ads, a sign of progress, began to accumulate and soon, with much time and work, an exceptional book from cover to cover was published.

But remember, dear Class of '60, none of these heroic deeds could have been accomplished without the quiet advice of Sister Carolyn and Sister Leontine, the artistic ability and unique ideas of Father Lamothe and Sister DeLourdes, the straight-forwardness and sensibility of Father Boland and Sister Fidelia, the helpfulness and generosity of Sister Delia and Sister Winifred, the wise direction of Sister Cornelia, and last but not least the generous sanction of our beloved Pastor, Reverend Father McCarthy.

To all of these we wish to say simply and sincerely, "We are grateful."

Your faithful historians,

Annette Courtemanche

Class Will

It's growing dark — the time when the anticipation of darkness brings more dread than darkness itself. As we enter an old dilapidated city, we discover a ramshackle shop. Behind its moldy shelves contain a kately readable scroll. Perusing the manuscript, we find that it is a will, the Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1960. Let's read it.
